Make your meaning clear. Give another voice room.

Master Speaking brings reading, listening, discussion and short research presentations together across eight themes. Build a clear point, support it with an example, and use feedback to make your next attempt stronger.

READ to explore an idea and explain what a passage supports.
LISTEN to an original story, recover details and clarify meaning.
DISCUSS a question from more than one perspective.
PRESENT a focused answer using identifiable sources.

Eight units. Thirty-two chapters. Topic language, pronunciation practice, reflection and repeatable speaking tasks.

Fictional listening scripts are included for a teacher or partner to read aloud. No external video or subscription is required.
